

KANEMORADO.

NICKERSON, KAN., Oct. 15, 1894.

Kanemorado Ministers and Churches Greeting:—All brethren ministers in the Kanemorado District who desire ministerial certificates, can receive them, by sending the proper credentials from their church to Brother J. R. Kellar, Beaver City, Neb. To those who furnished minister's credentials at District Conference the certificates are now on the way. The delay was caused by having to order them the second time from the Publisher.

Young People's Work.

FROM INDIANA.

DEAR EDITOR:—We organized our society of King's Children at Mount Zion, Sept. 22nd, with a membership of fourteen and have risen to a membership of twenty-one. Following were the officers elected:—Pres., I. Inbody; Vice Pres., D. H. Palmer; Sec'y., Jennie H. Palmer; Treas., S. M. Scholl; Marshal, S. Blackston; Com. on Program, D. H. Palmer, H. M. Scholl, S. J. Rutter; Com. on Inv., I. Inbody, D. H. Palmer, S. M. Scholl, J. H. Palmer.

We realize our weakness in the cause but we ask an interest in the prayers of those who are stronger, that we may grow, like wise.

JENNIE H. PALMER, SEC'Y.

The K. C. of the C. E. held an all-day meeting at Roann, Ind., beginning with an early 6 o'clock prayer meeting and ending with a sermon at night. We are pleased to note this earnestness on the part of our young people.

The young people of Warsaw, Indiana, have arranged for a series of five lectures to be given by Brother J. D. McFaden during his revival efforts at that place. We commend the zeal and judgment of the young people of Warsaw, and predict for them a pleasant and profitable time.

K. C. of C. E. report a new organization at Twelve, Mile Ind., with a good membership and live workers.

INDIANA MISSION BOARD.

The Mission Board of the Indiana District has (through the kindness of brother T. C. Leslie) a beautiful map of the Holy Land, and also one of Palestine, one of which will be sent free to the person sending the most money to S. S. Hoffman, Akron, Ind., chairman of the Mission Board. The offer is open to December 20, 1894. The other map will be sent free to the one sending the next largest amount.

The Mission Board of Indiana begins its work with $59.00 in the treasurer. This is certainly encouraging and the Board deserves credit for the way in which it is managing the mission work of the state.

NOTICE! BRETHREN AND SISTERS OF MD., VA., AND W. VA!

The Mission Board will do no more work than it has money to pay, cash in hand, for. The responsibility for failure, if failure result, rests with you. If you would have the work pushed actively you must furnish the means. There has been such a complete failure of the card system that, for the present, the Board does not care to place any dependence upon it or even to send out the cards. Send your cash contributions to the Treasurer Bro. John C. Bentz—Hagerstown, Md.

Yours Fraternally,

V. M. REICHARD, Pres.

FROM KANEMORADO.

As Moderator of the District Conference I urge the churches to remember the District Mission Fund and pay their aggregate of fifty cents, per member, per year, (less than one cent per week). Surely the poorest can pay that much to the home mission work this year. Let all who can pay the first half (or all) to their church treasurer in time to send it to District Treasurer J. B. Whipkey, Carleton, Neb., before December 1st, 1894. So the Mission Board will have funds to push the much needed mission work of the District. Who will pay and pray and work to win souls for Christ.

The Sunday School.

A NEW DEPARTURE

To push the work of the Sunday School, the Indiana State Conference has elected a state Secretary—C. F. Yoder. It is his duty to keep in touch with the Sunday School work, look after the organizations of new schools where practicable and, in a general way aid in the advancement of the Sunday School cause.

This is a commendable movement. The churches of Indiana are alive to every good work, and their zeal and methods of work are worthy of emulation. Let other conferences do the same and then let us have weekly reports from these secretaries for this department of the EVANGELIST. We shall expect to hear from Brother Yoder frequently.

TRUE COURAGE.

When Frederick, the Great, of Prussia, was ridiculing Christ and Christianity before a company of nobles and generals, who were convulsed with a laughter at the king's coarse witticisms, there was one brave general who remained gloomily silent. It was Joachim Von Zietan, one of the ablest and bravest generals there.

Rising at last and shaking his gray head solemnly, he said to the king:

"Your Majesty knows well that in war I have never feared any danger, and everywhere I have boldly risked my life for you and my country. But there is One above who is greater than you and me—greater than all men; he is the Savior and Redeemer, who has died also for your Majesty, and has dearly bought us all with his own blood. The Holy One I can never allow to be mocked or insulted; for on him repose my faith, my comfort, and my hope in life and death.

"In the power of this faith your brave army has courageously fought and conquered. If your Majesty undermines this faith, you undermine at the same time the welfare of your state. I salute your Majesty."

Frederick looked at the man in admiration, and, then and there, in the presence of the illustrious company, apologized to him for what he had said.—Selected.

If we would follow Christ, we must shake off the baser objects of earthly desire as nothing better than the dust which gathers upon the sere clothes of mortality. So Christ taught us, and so He lived.—F. W. Farrar.

A correct knowledge of the laws of life from a Christian standpoint is the just heritage of every boy and girl, without which we send them out to promiscuous influences to run chances of knowledge from a vicious and vitiating standpoint.

And some of us are shivering, and wondering why the Holy Spirit does not fill us. We have plenty coming in, but we do not give it out. Give out the blessing you have, start larger plans for service and blessing, and you will soon find that the Holy Ghost is before you, and He will present you with blessings for goodness, and give you all that He can trust you to give away to others.
